

Arizona individual tax credits

The State of Arizona has a variety of tax credit options which allow you to direct your tax dollars to a qualified charitable organization or school. The donation will also qualify for a federal charitable contribution deductible on Schedule A of an individual return in the year it is paid. Below is a summary of the credits available; a listing of the qualified charities can be found at Arizona Department of Revenue.

Tax Credit	Payment Deadline (tax year 2017)	Max $: Single/HH/MFS	Max $: Married
Qualifying Charitable Organizations (QCO) This credit supports organizations that provide assistance to residents of Arizona who either are low income, chronically ill, or have physically disabled children.	April 15, 2018	$400	$800
Qualifying Foster Care Charitable Organization (QFCO) This credit is similar to a Qualifying Charitable Organizations credit but has an additional focus on community foster care services.	April 15, 2018	$500	$1000
Public/Charter School Tax Credit This credit supports qualified programs and activities that may include extracurricular activities that require a student to pay a fee in order to participate. You are not required to have children to take the credit. A guide to determine if an activity qualifies can be found at AZDOR.gov .	April 15, 2018	$200	$400
Private School Tuition Credit This credit provides scholarship money to students attending private schools. You are not required to have children to take this credit. When you have maximized the credit on Form 323, then you can get the bonus amount and file Form 348.	April 15, 2018	$1,089	$2,177
Arizona Military Family Relief Fund A credit is allowed for certain cash contributions to the Arizona Military Family Relief Fund. This fund is administered by the Arizona Department of Veterans' Services and helps service members and their families faced with unforeseen expenses when a family member becomes a casualty of war. Arizona limits contributions to $1 million for the state credit.	December 31, 2017 or when state total of $1 million is reached	$200	$400
